May 29, 2022 Worship Theme: This Memorial Sunday, we observe with understated gratitude the ultimate sacrifices made by those who served valiantly and courageously in our Armed Forces at the cost of their lives, with corresponding sacrifices made by their family members, loved ones, and friends. We also take this special Sunday to worship God with some musical favorites that have filled our ears and lifted our hearts heavenward over the course of the last program year. Many thanks to our Accompanists, Choir, and Jim Werner for sharing your gifts and your commitment to the ministry of music that leads the congregation to the Mercy Seat of God week-by-week, month-by-month, and season-by-season.

*Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth.
 Worship the Lord with gladness; come into his presence with singing!
 ” - Psalm 100:1-2 [NRSV]*

* It is customary to stand at these times; however, please feel free to remain seated if you prefer.

* Opening Prayer – All Pray Aloud

(Larry Beckner to lead)

O LORD, we gather this morning in a spirit of joy and thanksgiving. Through the Psalmist, you tell us that it is not in the sacrifice of flesh that you delight but in the sacrifice of thanksgiving. It is in our calling upon you in our times of trial, trusting in your deliverance that you exult. It is in a tongue that speaks truth and a heart that seeks righteousness that you rejoice. May we not be found wanting for these virtues this day. In the name and Spirit of the risen Christ we pray. Amen.
